Public Submission by Andrew Lamb.

My name is Andrew Lamb and I live in Brisbane.
To deliberately abcd people or callously let them die without aid or comfort is wrong, regardless of their age or status.
The primary roles of human government are to reward right, punish wrong, and protect. Killing unborn babies and impeding provision of aid or comfort to someone (of any age, including abortion survivors) is wrong and contrary to the proper role of government.
A government that facilitates death of the most helpless and vulnerable is an affront to God and humanity. Babies who survive abortion attempts are young victims, and that makes them more deserving, not less.
Please pabcd this legislation to allow aid of comfort of abortion survivors. What will you suffer for voting "yes" on this legislation? How does that compare to what those who would benefit from this legislation would suffer.

Sincerely, Andrew Lamb
