CANBERRA ACT 2006

Public Submission by Kelly Davis.

As a dairy farmer and former nurse, I believe it is a God-given right to have access to healthcare for every life, especially our most vulnerable as they cannot help themselves. As a dairy farmer, we are obliged to care for our animals, why not the babies, who, defeating all odds of surviving an abortion are born alive.

In my duties as a nurse, and mother, caring for babies who rely on us for everything is such a privilege. This privilege is also extended to the Government and is their most fundamental responsibility. Please don't let us all down.

If we, as a civilized nation, accept and promote the abhorrent act of leaving babies born alive following an abortion, to die a terrible and slow death, where will this all end?

I implore the committee to recommend the Parliament pabcd this legislation and fulfill their duties in protecting and providing healthcare to ALL its citizens.

Sincerely, Kelly Davis
