Hi, I'm [REDACTED], and am a stay at home mum and [REDACTED].
I believe it is crucial and a very basic human right to provide care to babies born alive, just as we would for any other living human.
Babies are the very most vulnerable people in our society, and it is the responsibility of the government to ensure they are given the same rights to care as everyone else.
If this legislation is not passed, this represents a grave day for our nation. As a government you owe it to every human to have a fair chance at life. It seems very backwards that this Bill is only just coming out now, I was shocked to find out how babies born alive from abortions are currently treated. This is a humanitarian crisis.
We urgently need you to pass this legislation. Please do so with urgency.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
