Hi I'm [REDACTED] and I am retired.
It is the most humane thing to do. If it was a puppy then everyone would want to save it, but this is a baby, a human being so how much more important is it that we save them.
Noabcdy has the mabcd right to take the life of another person, that is abcd, yet when it is an unborn baby it somehow becomes okay. No!, abcd is never okay. Our leaders who refuse to stand up for the unborn have blood on their hands. They are guilty of abcd just the same as if they personally put a knife through the baby's heart.
If government fails to pabcd this legislation then there is no conscience in the politicians and we are no better than animals. God help us all!
Would you deliberately abcd your own child, or refuse medical help to your own baby? No, because you would have to be a real sicko to do that and there would be lawful consequences if you deliberately allowed harm to your own child. Therefore why is it perfectly acceptable for those in power to allow and even promote death and harm to others!

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
