

Public Health and Other Legislation (COVID-19 Management) Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 35
Submitted by: Bee Cassidy
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

This is entirely inappropriate to go forward with and allows for a significant amount of power to the CHO which, as seen in the past two years, can be used in nefarious ways. Too many conflicts of interest and too much secrecy surrounds this matter. It is a breach of human rights and compromises the constitution. It will cause civil unrest if it goes ahead. without more transparency.