Re: A jail term for encouraging life?

Dear Health and Environment Committee,

I object to the Voluntary assisted dying BILL 2021.

Let's love and help our sick and elderly right up to their natural death. Some people need both physical and mental health assistance to help them through life, but most of all they need to be loved they need to have hope in their life. Murder is never the answer.

One should always encourage a person to have hope, hope in what tomorrow will bring.
How dare a person be jailed for encouraging hope in a person's life. We do not live in a Communist country. We are all here to help our neighbour in their need. Don't dare turn that into something it is not.

Sincerely,
Susan Tibbs
