I would like you to please pass the vad bill my father has vascular dementia and he has a terrible death waiting for him he will loose control of all his bodily functions. He won't know who we are he will starve to death and not be able to communicate. He is currently aware this will happen and he cried and said jannie that doesn't sound to good . He's 82 and has a marvellous life my mum is 78 and has cancer his much suffering can one family stand. I'm on anti anxiety meds because of this has been our life for years now ... please don't make me put dad in a care home where he won't know anyone let him go while he still has the ability to say what he wants . Mum also doesn't want to suffer. This isn't about politicians it's about real people real heartbreak real suffering
