Re: Submission to the Health Committee

Dear Health Committee Members,

Firstly thank you for receiving this e-mail.

I am deeply disturbed ,having read various details of the Euthenasia Bill .

I cannot accept the conditions on which those suffering could be assisted to die.:-

to wit, no need to consult a specialist in the relevant area of expertise- only 2 doctors ,even inexperienced no need for competent psychological assessment threatened imprisonment for those caught trying to talk patient out of assisted suicide

In my opinion these and other aspects of this proposed bill threaten the welfare of those it purports to protect.

In the interest of humanity please reconsider this bill and instead of it, vote to increase palliative care.in line with other compassionate care already being given by the government.

Respectfully,

Louie L. Oldfield.

Sincerely,

Louie Oldfield
