Re: Submission to the Health Committee

Dear Health Committee Members,

I wish to add my objection to the proposed 'voluntary assisted dying' bill. The fact that a euphemism is required to cover-up the reality of State-condoned suicide points to morally bankrupt nature of this bill. The fact is that it proposes to cheapen human life, by law. Having increasingly rejected God, it's no wonder our politicians now seek to deny the sanctity of human life. On what foundation then, can any moral position be grounded? I suspect the answer is those with the loudest voices and the biggest sticks. What a deplorable state of affairs. I therefore beseech you to heed your better angels, be clear about the implications of your work, and choose wisely.

Sincerely,
Adam Marshall
