Re: Submission to the Health Committee

Dear Health Committee Members,

I find myself increasingly distressed by the Queensland Government's unrelenting commitment to death. One of the most disturbing images of recent times was watching the parliament erupt into paroxysms of delight at the passage of the diabolical Abortion Bill and now, not content with killing the unborn, this Government is targeting the old and the sick in its determination to alleviate the cost of palliative care. Couched in the language of 'compassion' this Bill mirrors the atrocities of Hitler's Germany where hundreds of thousands of World War One amputees and others considered a drain on the public purse, were ruthlessly exterminated. Please consider with extreme caution the barbaric pathway leading to assisted suicide, and reconsider the civilised option of increased palliative grants.

Sincerely,
Robert Scott
