Re: I oppose the "Voluntary Assisted Dying" Bill

Dear Health Committee Members,

I have grave concerns about the implications of such legislation, particularly its unintended ones. Such laws do not simply allow certain situations to be altered, but they change the culture of the land in which they operate.

The potential for abuse in this area is staggering, and palliative care options are able to deal with most cases with dignity and grace.

Yes, certain situations will be helped by this legislation. But many more will be made far worse in the long run.

Sincerely,
Peter Kutuzov
