Re: I oppose the "Voluntary Assisted Dying" Bill

Dear Health Committee Members,

I disagree with the intent of someone taking their own life, this is suicide and manslaughter for anyone who assists. This is not what doctors were trained to do. No one is meant to cause harm to another. If anything, Doctors are meant to make end of life more comfortable for the ill person, in conjunction with a team of palliative carers.

Sincerely,
Dimi Stathopoulos
