

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Wednesday, 23 June 2021 3:11 PM
To: Health and Environment Committee

I support the right to die with dignaty in its entiety. after watching my father die, a man who played footy till 70 then cancer hit .and to watch every one around him including hospital staff knowing he had given up the fight to have to wither to nothing .when a week before a needle instead of him pleading for anyone to take his life would have been in everones best interst