Take into consideration what has been passed in other states, Do a vote on compassion and take into account that this was a reason that the last election was won on this promise and is why you are where you are, do not get confused on or religious beliefs, that is not a personal choice but a people's choice,and be transparent about your vote ,with reasons why ,as it will be your morals on the line to choose against the people in your electorate, think of the intolerable suffering, have mercy!!
