

Inquiry into Crocodile Control and Conservation Bill 2025

Submission No: 25
Submitted by: Roger Barnett
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

There are way too crocs in the water at the moment why because they are the apex predator. There needs to be a croc removable program upgraded plus an immediate cull now before we have more croc attacks /Incidents I have been fishing in the Cardwell area for over 25 years and I have seen the crocs we have now it is serious and Cardwell reallys on tourism we don't need them eaten when trying to enjoy our beautiful beaches