

Inquiry - Improving Queensland's Container Refund Scheme

Submission No: 31
Submitted by: Alison Smith
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Increasing the original purchase price has the additional benefit of making it more expensive to buy poor quality "foods" so I don't have a problem with this. My BIGGEST issue is imported beverages should also have to comply to match Australian standards..... Not having it on imports, could sway the consumer to buying imports instead which takes away from Australian based companies.