To: Surrogacy Committee

To members of the Queensland Surrogacy Committee,

I am writing to express my concern at prospect of surrogacy laws changing in Queensland. I do not believe it is in the best interests for our society for more than a male and female parent to have a biological stake in the life of a child. I realise that this is a complex issue and an emotive issue but the real issue is the preservation and guarding of the traditional family unit of Dad, Mum and kids at all costs.

Sincerely

Evan Shelton
