TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Please consider this submission into the "Fly in, fly out and other long distance commuting work practices in regional Queensland" inquiry.

I remember one time a camp ran out of bread , so the camp brought all the bread from Coles leaving Mum no bread for the kids for school
FIFO people have no care factor about the community as their lives ar back in the city

Impacting The community, Increase on health system, Incease in individuals mental health (not coping being away from the wife ,husband , girlfriend, boyfriend)

What's wrong with building the town more and have the bulk of people live in the town, it's a great town (MORANBAH) and so is he community

Regards

Peter Young
