Importance: Low

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Please consider this submission into the "Fly in, fly out and other long distance commuting work practices in regional Queensland" inquiry.

you feel like a prisoner, the restrictions they put on you if you go into the towns, and the locals are really doing very hard you are unable to get in a hurry when there is family trouble, and the local people are the trained and experienced and being employed employee locals in the local area, they live there they should have a job over fi fo
