To Whom It May Concern

My husband has recently accepted a position with [REDACTED] and the terms of his employment state that he must live within 100km of Brisbane or Cairns airport.

We currently live within driving distance to his work site and my husband has the option to be home each night with his family. This condition on his contract which forces us to relocate our family, remove our children from their settled school environment, leave our families and friends and start of in a city where we know nobody and have no reliable network should we need assistance.

I am not only concerned for the mental health state of my husband for being away from his family but also the effect it will have on our children and on myself. It will also put strain on our relationship and financially is putting us in a backward step. If there were any other options available for work we would not have accepted this role but in current circumstances we don't seem to have much choice.

Please hear our concerns and put yourselves in our family situation.

Regards
