Dear Sirs

As a young tradesman and Australian, I was coached and coaxed by my parents and successive governments to work hard, save what you could and invest for the future. This would enable myself to provide for my retirement years and to avoid relying on the age pension.

I now find after years of doing just that, that I am faced with an illegal competitor in the taxi market that is devaluing my investment and taking away the investment I am relying on to support myself in my retirement years.

This bill being presented to parliament needs to be enacted on behalf of the family investors like myself, the operators and all those employed within the industry. We don't need the Queensland government to change the rules to suit Uber. We need Uber to conform to the rules that have kept the Queensland Taxi Industry one of the most recognised leaders in Australian transport.

Thank you
David Dall'Alba
