

Criminal Code (Defence of Dwellings and Other Premises—Castle Law) Amendment Bill 2026

Submission No: 079

Submission By: Bernard McKean

Publication: Making the submission and your name public

I believe it is the right of all Australians to be able to protect their loved ones, themselves and their possessions using what ever force necessary to prevent a crime being perpetrated upon their family, self or their possessions. I believe changing the laws will act as a greater deterrent to criminals if they know their next victim has the law on their side and the force necessary to prevent a crime can be used more readily by the victim without fear of going to jail for an act of defence.