The home invasions has gone on for too long. Nothing is being done about it through law for whatever reason and i strongly believe people have the right to defend and protect themselves and family when they are in danger. No one is better than anyone else so maybe think how you would feel if your front door was kicked in and your child woke up screaming from fear. You would absolutely defend your home and family BUT to be punished for doing so is a joke. No one asks to have their home invaded or car stolen. Think about that.
