Living in Townsville you do not feel safe. The crime from young offenders, adults and gangs in on the increase and people are not safe. Unloading groceries from your car, in your garage, you are not safe from car theft, violence or attack. Houses being broken into, cars being stolen, crime is rampant.

Juvenile houses are feasting points for gangs. Parents don't know or care where children are late at night. Schools are trying to do parents job and not actually teaching basic literacy and numeracy. Society has no respect.

Politicians are supposed to lead by example but all the public sees on the news is how they are using the system abuse their positions yo get the best for themselves and not the people they represent.

Being safe in your own home is a god given right. To protect yourself inside your own property is unquestionable. If threatened and man or beast will decent their family. Why do offenders get all the rights and the good people continue to suffer.

Australia has declined in morals and respect, the constant bickering between political parties and the system, judges and the law all need to change. I stand by Castle Law and people protecting themselves and their possessions .
