As a single female caring for her elderly father, we have been broken into in the early morning hours by several offenders and were woken by these individuals searching through the house for ?car keys, money, etc. They were scared off when I awoke, but the shock and downright anger I felt of having several individuals enter my house uninvited and violate the security and place that should feel safe let me tell you, takes a long time to get over, if ever! Not to mention the added expense now of adding security cameras, extra locks, and security features to my home, which is hard on a single wage and pension.

Then to be told by the QPS and see on Facebook pages that they are arrested and set free almost immediately by the courts...what a joke! The law needs a total upgrade to hold these individuals accountable for their actions and for them to know that if they commit crimes, then there is a VERY STRICT consequence and punishment for that crime. Especially after seeing that they are REPEAT OFFENDERS, obviously the punishment is laughable to them now, or they wouldn't re-offend! STOP THIS NONSENSE OF HAVING THE VICTIM PAY FOR THE CRIME!! WE ARE OVER THIS INSANITY!! It's about time the correct people are held accountable and we, as victims of crime can start feeling safe and have a community we all feel safe and protected in.
