

Electoral Laws (Restoring Electoral Fairness) Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 003
Submission By: Tara Broso
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

---

It is undemocratic to attempt for those with a vested interest to selectively curate their voting base by excluding imprisoned people, who are disproportionately marginalised people. People do not lose their human rights at the prison gate and are entitled to have a say in the laws that hold them captive and that will affect their family and communities.