

Electoral Laws (Restoring Electoral Fairness) Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 034

Submission By: [REDACTED]

Publication: Making the submission public but withholding your name

No to property developer donations.

If property developers want to be involved in politics, then they should be doing so through building affordable housing that is suitable for the location and the needs of residents, not by donations to parties that can result in significant corruption. This was banned for a reason. Almost all new builds are high end expensive apartments on the city of fringe whereas more moderate, affordable, but with more family sized bedrooms are required in medium to high density areas.