To whom it ma concern,

i am writing to express my thoughts in regards to the new proposed gun laws. i am a keen young shooter being working on. cattle stations and farms for years. my license is currently 2 months into application however i am a permanent resident from UK. i understand these laws however in order to become a AUS citizen it takes upto 12months i will be applying and become a citizen without a doubt now but i really would like to get into the sport clay shooting and also help farmers in pest control however being a permanent resident i wokt be able to im 19 years old 110%sober no drinking no smoking or anything law abiding and follow all rules and regulations. is there a way to mae it that the current license applications have 12month to become a citizen before they lose their license or get denied? i applied for my license before the bondi incident and have been a little upset with all the outcomes in some ways about it.

Thanks For taking the time to read this and i hope there is something that can be figured out.

Many Regards Jack
