I do NOT support the proposed 'Fighting antisemitism and keeping guns out of the hands of terrorists and criminals amendment Bill 2026'.

Apart from the obvious political football being played, it is obvious that the government is not acting in good faith towards any community with this bill. Who decides what antisemitism is? Who decides what hate speech is?

I'm concerned that the answer to both of those questions is 'the sitting government whenever it is politically convenient to play culture wars'.

And the wording of the Bill is disgusting. "Keeping out of the hands of terrorists...." what are you, 5? This is an obvious move against pro-Palestinian movements (read also: anti-fascist and anti-genocide movements) by a government less and less concerned with doing what is right for its citizens. Shame on Daniel Purdie and shame on the LNP government.
