I am concerned about reprisal. I would like my concern accepted; however the antisemitism movement is not new and has been used across the globe and those who question it, or wish to learn more, in many cases are themselves branded antisemitic. Which is the furthest from my intent. Wasn't the Bondi tragedy found to be not linked to antisemitism? I'm not certain how constraining freedoms which we all enjoy by living in the beautiful country of Australia, and which we can all play a role in dealing with root cause understanding and fixes, without taking away liberties of free speech. Before this bill goes for a vote, I'd like to know what the Qld Government intends to gain by intruding this Bill; how will it be measured; and what will be directly impacted by these bills. As a member of the public, who does not have background or backroom knowledge, I see this Bill as foreign interference. I do however, completely agree on anything which supports stronger gun/weapon control and access.
