

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 36

Submitted by:

Publication: Making the submission public but withholding your name

Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

The character references provided for offenders of severe sexual crimes should be abolished. If someone is found guilty of a sexual offence including rape or paedophilia, they have already shown the content of their character and no further information is required.