

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 37

Submitted by:

Publication: Making the submission public but withholding your name

Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I wholly support the Your Reference Ain't Relevant campaign to remove the consideration of good character references for perpetrators. The opinions of others who were not abused or harmed by the perpetrator should not be considered at all in any judgements. It is biased and irrelevant how the perpetrator treats others who they know will provide a good reference in the event of trial.