It's 2025 and parliament and virtually all of humanity (or at least almost all MALES - aka: the ones who set society up to fail to be civilised) have STILL failed to look down on perpetrators with the same level of disgust and hatred that they look down on victims and survivors of sexual violence. Why do you love rapists so much?? You should all hang your heads in shame and take a real good look at yourselves. And you say you care about women and children and humanity's future. DISGUSTING!
