

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 48
Submitted by: Sarah Nattrass
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Character references should not be allowed for serious crimes like rape, child sex abuse and domestic violence. By allowing these it sends a message to potential offenders that with the help of an accomplice, they can swerve the consequences of their actions, further perpetuating the likelihood of these serious crimes to be committed.