

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 55
Submitted by: Talia Mann
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I wholeheartedly believe that character references are not an appropriate piece of evidence that should be used for alleged sexual predators and domestic violence perpetrators. These sorts of offenders will often do 'good' in other avenues in their life to maintain a facade or as an attempt to compensate for their harmful behaviour. It should not matter what else they have done, it is not relevant!