

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 67
Submitted by: Zhana Yussof
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

A notable attribute of perpetrators of sexual violence is the ability to manipulate the people around them to conceal their violent tendencies. The opinion of a person who has not been assaulted by a perpetrator is irrelevant to their defense. They are being held accountable for their violence against their victim - nothing else.