

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 83
Submitted by: Kate Moyle
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I can not see how anyone of good character would find themselves in a situation where they are accusedof/found guilty of sexual offences. These offenders come from all walks of life and may live a normal life apart from their offending. Except that none of that actually matters. All that matters if the crime they committed. They should be judged on this alone. Character has nothing to do with it.