

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 87
Submitted by: Nicola Sloan
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Remove Character Reference. It does not serve justice. Ensuring that they are seen as someone of "good character" is a well established pattern of behaviour that paedophiles employ to ensure access to their victims. Allowing this to continue as a form of evidence benefits only perpetrators, and does not protect victims.