

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 98
Submitted by: Charles Harvey
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I, Charlie Harvey support the campaign that strives to end character references for accused sex offenders. I find it absolutely ridiculous that an individual can have the support of a character reference- something which is a completely subjective assessment, in a scenario where only the facts of the case should be considered.