Those who harm children sexually are not fit for references. Anyone advocating for the 'goodness' of a child sex predator must be mad? I was sexually abused as a child and I still suffer. CTPSD, PMDD, depression and anxiety along with regularly feeling suicidal because this world is so sick. Adults harming children physically and psychologically for sexual gratification must not be discussed in any positive light in any given circumstances. You can't sexually abuse children and be a good person. This world is dark and scary and full of adults who want to have sex with your children - please think carefully about giving these monsters character references from other sickos who they trade their child porn with.
