

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 137
Submitted by: Saskia Klok
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Good character references have absolutely no place in our justice system. These dangerous people don't deserve to be able to weaponise their social status and connections to minimise the harm they force on their victims. Why are we protecting these monsters when justice for their victim/survivors should be our only priority?