

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 161
Submitted by: Kate Toyer
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Convicted sex offenders should not be able to use 'good character' references as a defence or to mitigate their sentence in a court of law. These references have for too long been used to defend the heinous actions of people who abuse their power.