

Penalties and Sentences (Sexual Offences) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 194
Submitted by: Vicki Blackburn
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I am strongly opposed to convicted criminals having the ability to submit character references during sentencing. The charges and conviction are a testament to character and actions that will and have been taken. I also very strongly submit that this applies to sentencing for manslaughter and murder.