

Youth Justice (Monitoring Devices) Amendment Bill 2025

Submission No: 1
Submitted by: Cat McDonald
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Parents should take responsibility for children under 18, or youth crime will never change. Early intervention: Life skills education should start at primary school level and include different areas of concern: Road safety Personal safety Self defence Personal development Individual rights and responsibilities Motivational Skills Personal hygiene Respect, etc. I'm a retired teacher who built and owned two private schools. Not a single child who attended, through 25 years, turned out to be criminal.