Subject: Electoral and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2015
Date: Wednesday, 8 April 2015 7:22:51 PM

Please retain the current requirement for all legitimate voters to provide proof of identity before casting their vote.

The last time we had to vote it was easy to provide the evidence required to prove my identity. It was reassuring to know that my vote was actually made by me and not fraudulently misused. I was very happy to comply and thought it was a very good requirement, as would any reasonable person.

I did not have any negative feedback from family and friends about this current requirement and consider it is widely accepted by the community, and is needed to ensure the integrity of the electoral system by minimising the possibility of voter fraud.

In fact we find it strange to understand the reasoning behind this Amendment, and why has been put forward at all and also that the media have failed to report it.

with kind regards, from Alan & Susan Johnson <"><
