Dear Sir/Madam,

I writing to you to urge you to please retain the current requirement for voters to provide proof of identity before casting their vote.

This requirement is widely accepted by the community, and is needed to ensure the integrity of the electoral system by minimising the possibility of voter fraud, which would be very easy to commit by either voters or party representatives in the absence of the logical provision of ID by voters.

I look forward to your response.

Thank you and regards,

Paul Williams
