Dear Sir/Madam,

Having just found out that the Labour Party of Qld introduced a bill to remove the requirement for voters to provide ID at state and local elections. I object strongly to this bill as it could lead to massive abuse and fraud of our democratic system. In just about every sphere of life people have to provide proof of identity. It must remain mandatory to have ID at all government elections. After all it is of the utmost importance we have open and transparent elections to maintain the integrity of our laws and the elected representatives we put into government for the benefit of all the people of our state and country.
