Hi,

We are very concerned to hear that the Queensland Labour Government is considering removing ID at polling booths. We came from Zimbabwe 26 years ago and part of the reason we are here is because of the voter fraud that overturned Ian Smith's Government. And it goes on in all countries where there is very little law and order and racialism or extreme religious extremists rule. Do we want that to be what happens in Queensland? Is there an extremist ideal behind this decision? Please register our real concern for this proposal. Legitimate Government is very, very important. Please uphold the means to maintain that legitimacy.

Thank you
