Date: Friday, 10 April 2015 8:30:49 AM

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to request the retention of the need for presentation of valid identification prior to casting a ballot vote in Queensland. There is no good reason to remove this requirement that I can see, it is a simple measure, and consistent with a fair and transparent electoral process. This legislation lends itself to voter fraud, and lacks respect for the need of minimising such behaviour. The people must have confidence in the electoral process if governments, current and future, are to maintain legitimacy, and the respect of the community at large.

Sincerely,
Andrew Bates-Brownsword.
