Dear Sir/Madam,

Regarding this matter, I earnestly request that the requirement to present identification when voting be retained.

This requirement has been accepted by the wider community for a long time, and as such is part of the expected process of voting. It provides an additional safeguard against voting fraud, thus helping to ensure the integrity of our voting system. For very little effort, a great deal of safety is added to the voting system by the retention of this requirement.

Regards,

James Aitken
